

Our curriculum will develop aspirational learners who are strong, resilient and self-aware.

- Strong and healthy inside and out – physically and mentally.
 - Emotionally literate.
- Take responsibility for own actions and impact on others.
 - Strategies to learn in all states of well-being.
 - Believe in themselves.
 - Have self confidence.
 - Self aware and others- aware.

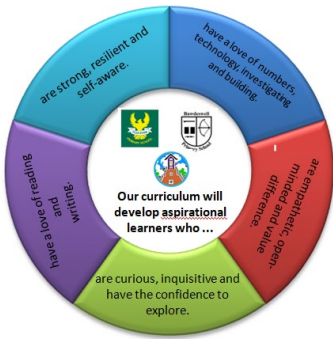

Our curriculum will develop aspirational learners who are curious, inquisitive and have the confidence to explore.

- Appreciation of new and different experiences.
 - A desire to create and explore.
- Confident and happy to take calculated risks.
 - Happy and playful.
 - Innovative.
 - Enjoy learning.

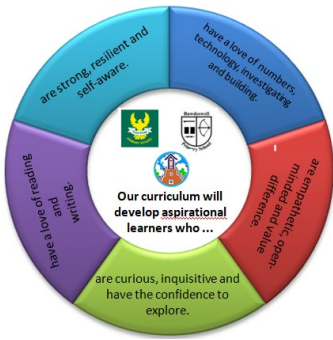

Our curriculum will develop aspirational learners who are empathetic, open-minded and value difference.

- World aware.
- Interested in the world.
- Aware of and respectful of the different beliefs that people hold.
 - Respectful, kind and caring to all both within and beyond the school community.
 - Treat others, nature and the planet with respect.

Our curriculum will develop aspirational learners with a love of reading and writing.

- Love of story
- Competent readers
- Reading and vocabulary are recognised and valued as the key to further knowledge

Our curriculum will develop aspirational learners with a love of numbers, technology, investigating and building.

- Calculate with confidence and accuracy.
 - Have a strong number sense.
 - Passion for problem solving.